NABCA
Branch Campus
Leadership Institute

An innovative solution for your professional development needs.

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

The Branch Campus Leadership Institute brings the expertise of national administrators from parent and off-site locations as well as business and nonprofit leaders to those wanting to enter, serve, and advance in the profession. This year long institute features monthly, three-hour videoconferences, a field-trip experience and an opportunity for two in-person meetings.

WHAT IS INCLUDED?

- Each participant will receive the class text, The Contrarian's Guide to Leadership by Steven B. Sample
- The institute includes a situational challenge that will be identified by each participant and will be developed into a case study.
- Each participant will be partnered with an Executive Coach to receive regular feedback and mentoring.
- NABCA Membership

WHEN & WHERE?

Institute Sessions will be held one day each month from 12:00-3:00pm Eastern Standard Time. All sessions are available for participation via Zoom videoconference.

DETAILS & APPLICATION

The Branch Campus Leadership Institute is $1,850 per participant. This fee covers 12 three-hour facilitated sessions, institute text, online discussion forums, meals for in-person sessions, and the institute mentorship program.

The Orientation and Graduation are held on Conference Wednesday in April of each year and attendance is in person or through videoconference (using the Zoom platform technology at no cost to the participant).

Videoconference Sessions only are held from May through March.

To apply for the Branch Campus Leadership Institute, visit NABCA.net "Programs" and submit your application, along with the application fee.

Applications will be reviewed by the Steering Committee. Program fee balance will be due upon acceptance.
